3	On Wednesday, Molly was building a monster when her mother said, "Molly, tidy up!" But Molly was too busy having fun. Then Molly went for tea, and she still hadn't tidied up. When Molly came back, the living room was tidy. "Who's tidying up? I'd like to meet them. Maybe it's an octopus..." she thought. Molly looked everywhere: under her bed, inside the top drawer and even down the toilet! But Molly couldn't find Octopus anywhere. Then she had an idea...  Why was Molly always too busy to tidy up? Where did Molly look for the octopus? Then she had an idea. What does idea mean?	Amir is working out $55 - 8 =$ He uses a number line.  Complete Amir's method. 4	On Thursday, when her mother said, "Molly, tidy up!", Molly carried on dancing, making a massive mess of her bedroom. And when Molly went for tea, she ate it super fast and raced back to her bedroom. Molly imagined Octopus would be very busy today because she'd left a huge mess. But she had a surprise... there wasn't an octopus: it was her mother! So on Friday, when her mother said, "Molly, tidy up!", she did.  Why did Molly rush to have her tea? What was Molly doing on: Monday? Tuesday? Wednesday?
