

Gordon Primary School

Remote Learning Grid

Nursery

Week Beginning 19.10.2020

| Day | English                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Maths                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Science/Topic work                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1   | Can you draw a picture of yourself?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Can you practise this autumn poem at home? Can you use your fingers to count? Five little leaves on a tree one day,The wind came along and blew one way,Four little leaves in a tree one day,The wind came along and blew one way,Three little leaves...Two little leaves...One little leaf..                                                                 | We are in Autumn! Can you collect some leaves from your garden? Can you talk to an adult about what happens during the autumn? Such as leaves blowing from the trees in the wind.  |
| 2   | Read this "Autumn" by Gerda Muller. Look at the pictures and describe what the characters are doing. It is very important that you do it in your home language. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yohL5bxiRLO   | Can you recite the Autumn poem again? Can you hold 5 leaves up and drop one each time the wind blows one away? How many have you got left? Five little leaves on a tree one day,The wind came along and blew one way,Four little leaves in a tree one day,The wind came along and blew one way,Three little leaves...Two little leaves...One little leaf..  | Let's make some leaf print! Get some paper, paint and the leaves that you collected yesterday. Paint the leaf, press the leaf onto the paper and remove the leaf.                 |

3

Can you sing your favourite Nursery Rhyme?

Can you help your adult with the laundry? Can you help matching the socks?

Can you make a necklace with pasta? Paint your pasta and when it is dry you can make your necklace threading a string through one of your pieces of pasta.

4

At Nursery, we love reading! Together with a grown-up, can you read your favourite book?

Look at the following shapes:

Circle

square

triangle

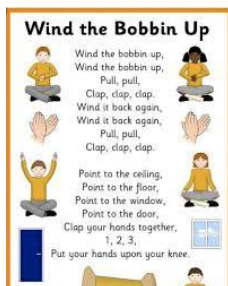

Can you find any of these shapes around your house?

Can you make play-dough following the recipe?
<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/howto/guide/playdough-recipe>

5

Can you learn a new Nursery Rhyme?

Can you practise drawing a circle?

We are going to listen to The Four Seasons. This music was written by a man called Antonio Vivaldi a long, long time ago. He wanted to write music that sounded like the different seasons. Listen carefully, should you be moving quickly or slowly? How could you show leaves falling, birds singing or sun shining?

Four Seasons by Antonio Vivaldi